NEW CHURCHES/CHAPELS for 2010:

There are five new Churches/Chapels in Buckinghamshire on the list this year; Participants are recommended to try to visit them where practicable, since this may encourage them to take part again in the future. These are:

- Amersham Deanery: Jordans: Friends' Meeting House. The most famous of all Quaker meeting houses, built as such in 1688 and much renewed in c1958. Recently restored following a disastrous fire. Take the A40 east from Beaconsfield, then 1/2 mile after the link to the M40 fork left on unclassified road (Potkiln Lane) to Chalfont St Giles. Meeting House on right after about 1 mile.
- Burnham and Slough Deanery: Boveney: St Mary Magdalene. Now in the care of Friends of Friendless Churches, this is a beautiful small 12thC former bargees' church. Take the B3026 Burnham to Eton Road and shortly after passing through Dorney fork right down down Boveney Road (more of a country lane!). The church is down a short path where the road runs out. Possible keyholder on 07769 928683.
- Claydon Deanery: Quainton: Baptist Church. In Church Street, just northeast of The Green. The editor of this document is looking forward to visiting this church, since he does not know it!
- Newport Deanery: Haversham: St Mary. Norman origins (west window concealed from the outside by the tower). West tower added soon after. Follow Wolverton / Haversham Road north from Wolverton Station, then after about a mile, down a short lane to the right in Haversham Village.
- Lathbury: All Saints. A delightful small 12thC church, at the end of a short lane to the left off the B526 (Northampton Road) around a mile north of Newport Pagnell.
